SUNBEAMS.

The King of Burmah has built a theatre in the garden of the Royal palace, and has performances there every afternoon, at which his 450 wives are present; but no man except himself, his eunuchs, and the performers; the last are also either eunuch or female slaves. The King puts in an appearance several times a week, but the wives manage to find time to attend daily.

Bartner and Baptiste Costa, two eccentric brothers, lived together in an isolated house at Collinsville, Mo. Baptiste went to the nearest neighbor and said that he had killed Bartner. His story, though true, was not believed. Next day he tried to convince another neighbor that he was a murderer, but with no better success. A week elapsed before he was able to get himself arrested.

Mrs. Armstrong, a young and charming widow with a fortune of $30,000, was received into the best society of Columbus, Ohio. She married Herman Corzilius, the Treasurer of the county. Two weeks after the wedding she was arrested for the murder of her first husband, whose father had for two years kept detectives at work on the case, and had at last discovered testimony clearly implicating her.

Among the claims presented by a farmer to the Rhode Island Legislature, for damages done on his premises by a militia regiment, was one of $50 for "use of house while taking care of sick soldier & attention &c." This item is found to have been based on the fact that an indisposed soldier sat on his piazza from 10 A. M. until 4 P. M., and all the damage was in the terrible mental anxiety of his wife.

A burlesque company was performing at Atlanta. The Mayor had sent a police Captain and three men to arrest the actresses if they did any thing outrageously improper. The silk tights worn by some "living statues" were so perfect in flesh color that the Captain doubted if they were tights at all, and he invaded the stage with his force; but an inspection showed that the suspicion was groundless, and the show was allowed to go on.

Old Gen. Wrangel of Prussia, not long since deceased, was a crabbed and queer character, but he had some humor. The Bear, a Berlin periodical, tells how one of his officers called on him one day, wearing spurs that did not conform to the army regulations, noticing which, Wrangel imposed a penalty of twenty-four hours' confinement upon him. The officer, seeing that Wrangel wore the same kind of spurs himself, called his attention to the fact. "That is so," replied the old soldier. "You are right, and you may therefore remain under twenty-four hours' additional arrest for me."

The Humane Association's Cattle Car Competition.

From the Scientific American.
The first result of the American Humane Association's offer of an award of $5,000 for an improved stock car, capable of carrying live animals long distances without suffering or having to be unloaded to be fed and watered, appears to be an accumulation of business not at all anticipated by the officers of that association, and not altogether in harmony with the objects for which the society was organized.

The judges' circular, No. 2, dated Feb. 1, acknowledges the receipt of 420 models and about 200 plans and sketches; and (since Jan. 1, the limit set to the receipt of plans and models) they have been overwhelmed with correspondence asking why the award is not made or the models, etc., returned. In other words, the office of the association has been turned into a sort of local patent office, for the work of which it was ill prepared. The judges suggest that, even if they neglect their own business and devote their entire time to the examination of models, plans, etc., and the comparison of them with the 111 U. S. patents already granted for stock cars, several months must elapse before a decision can be arrived at. Indeed, it is likely that months will have to be devoted to clerical and expert work before the competitive examination by the judges can begin. When made, the result will be announced to the association, as specified in the circular of July 12, 1880.

The way Dead Bodies dry up in Arizona.

From the Phoenix (A. T.) Gazette.

The remark so often made and heard in Arizona about dead bodies drying up and blowing away, received a pretty strong verification at the reinterment of Dan Dietrich. Although death had occurred nearly eight months ago and the body had been buried only in blankets, every feature was distinct and perfect, and any one who had known Dan, during his lifetime would at once recognize them. The hair appeared to have grown since his death, and still retained its natural color. No unpleasant odor was perceptible, and one might easily have supposed he was examining a well preserved mummy. Since the first interment the body only shrank and dried up, and no sign of decay could be found save in the region of the stomach, and that was due more to the fact of that portion of the body having been opened during the post-mortem examination than to natural causes. The body had, however, in that time lost over two-thirds of its weight, dwindling from 140 pounds to less than fifty pounds. This remarkable state of preservation in our hot, dry climate and soil is by no means uncommon, and many present could cite similar instances of it.

HOW TO MAKE GOOD SCHOOLS.

An esteemed lady teacher in Reno sends us the following clipping from the Normal School Visitor, on "How To Make Good Country Schools." Our fair contributor remarks that it is as applicable to Reno schools as to "country schools," and requests its publication. So, as "a lady's wish makes slaves of us all" (sometimes), here followeth the article:

"Elect none but live, educated men as directors.
Have good school houses neatly built and well ventilated, and thoroughly supplied with good furniture and apparatus.
Have the school year commence the first Monday in September and continue, with a holiday vacation, till the first of May following.
Employ none but trained teachers, or those qualified to lead, rather than mislead the young.
Retain the same teacher throughout the school year.
Pay said teacher enough to enable him to live and have a little money to spend for fitting himself for higher usefulness in his calling.
Don't employ a teacher because he underbids some one else. Cheap teachers, like cheap jewelry, are not made of good material. Avoid them.
Let parents, officials and others visit the schools frequently, not to find fault but to encourage both teacher and pupil.
Don't be afraid your schools are costing too much. Your children, parents, are more valuable than your horses and cattle; the theory of many school patrons to the contrary notwithstanding.
Have a special pride in making your own the banner school of the township or county. Faith as large as a mustard seed will remove mountains of difficulty in our school work. Parents and friends of our country schools, think of these things, and go to work to make your schools what you would have them be. Good schools do not, like manna of Israelite times, drop from the clouds. They must be made so by money and work."

To the foregoing we would take the liberty of adding: If teachers in general spent less time in cumbering the minds of children with names and dates and other musty rubbish of learning; and spent more time in teaching them something of the nature of things; of the wonders of natural science, of the great formative forces of nature, of botany, geology, zoology, and kindred studies which help to make life worth living, and which increase in interest as life advances—if teachers would all do this, we say, the time of many of them would be better employed than it is now. We would like to club the teacher who made us (when a little boy in school) learn, or pretend to learn, the heights of mountains in Asia, but taught us nothing of how the green grass sprang up out of doors, or whence came the dew that wet our unwilling feet on the walk to that dismal school in the summer mornings; nothing of what made the sky so red at sunset, or the wind blow, or the clouds form in the sky, or the rain come rushing to the earth. The sea was at the school house door, but not a word did that teacher tell us of anemones, or starfish, or the little squids that the waves washed to our feet, or of any of the other myriad wonders of the deep. Yes, we would enjoy clabbing that teacher with a fifty-pound six-foot club, if only that teacher were a man, instead of a good old lady, who didn't know any better, and taught as well as she knew how.

A paragraph describing "a lovely party dress" is going the rounds of the papers, and many of the poor girls who read it are no doubt mortified at the thought that they cannot dress as they would like to dress. But whenever that paragraph turns up to our view we think of Thackeray's sage remark that "nothing shines in society so much as a good heart." The girl who can add that attraction to the charms of a pleasant face and gentle manners need not greatly concern herself about her dress.

The burning of the State Insane Asylum at Danville, Pennsylvania, on Sunday night, resulted in no loss of life. There were 500 patients in the building, all of whom were safely removed. The building was of stone, and cost $400,000. The origin of the fire is unknown.

SOMETHING BOTTEN IN THE STATE OF DENMARK.

Why there are more suicides in Denmark than in any other country in the world, may be difficult to explain, but it is a fact that the Danes are of all peoples the one most given to self-destruction. It may be that the type of melancholy represented by Shakespeare's Hamlet is a national type, and that Danes not only are infected with that mental malady which sees in the blue vault of heaven—that "majestical roof fretted with golden fire"—naught but "a foul and pestilent congregation of vapors." Be that as it may, here are figures to prove what we have stated. They are from Prof. Bertillon's statistics on the increase of suicides in different countries:

YEAR	SUICIDES
Italy.....	1878 37
Belgium.....	1878 69
Great Britain and Ireland.....	1878 70
Sweden and Norway.....	1878 80
Austria.....	1878 132
France.....	1878 149
Prussia.....	1878 153
Denmark.....	1878 248
United States.....	1878 248
Minor German States.....	1878 259

EDITORIAL NOTES.

There is evidently much perjury in the Killoch trial. Barry, a witness, swore that De Young fired the first shot, and that Lloyd, one of the prosecuting lawyers, tried to bribe him to swear to the contrary. Lloyd swears that Barry lies. Forester, charged with offering a bribe to Simpson to induce him to testify that De Young fired the first shot, has been held to answer. And now Barry has been arrested on a charge of perjury. And E. T. McLean swears he was offered a bribe to testify that he heard six shots. It appears that in San Francisco witnesses can be bought to order.

In another column to-day will be found a letter from L. P. Walker, formerly one of the most familiar figures in Reno. As the Wood River region, of which he writes so well, is attracting considerable attention, the contents of his letter may be valuable information to many persons. We are informed that Mr. Walker is prospering in his new location.

There is great excitement in Arizona over the passage of a bill by the Council, repealing the tax on bullion. The bill has gone to the Governor. Now let us see if he has the backbone to emulate Kinkaid of Nevada.

The bill exempting from taxation the shares of the capital stock of corporations and deposits in savings banks, has been signed by Governor Perkins of California.

Several esteemed contemporaries will be glad to learn that the Chicago Board of Trade has officially declared that there is no epidemic disease among hogs this year.

The reason why Mr. Marriott, of San Francisco, does not give a public exhibition of his "aeroplane," or air ship, is probably because it is a humbug.

The British have arranged an armistice with the Boers until the 14th inst., with a view to a peaceful settlement.

Senator Sharon is a passenger on the overland to arrive here Thursday night.

An Amendment to the Opium Law. Gov. Kinkaid has signed Moriarty's bill to amend the opium law. The amendment is to Section 1 of the opium act of 1877, which section is made to read as follows:

"From and after the last day of March, 1881, it shall be unlawful for any person or persons, as principals or agents, to have in their possession any opium pipe, or part thereof, or found smoking the same, or to sell or give away for such purpose, or otherwise dispose of any opium in this State, except druggists and apothecaries; and druggists and apothecaries shall sell it only on the prescription of a legally practicing physician."

The penalty under the statute for any violations of its provisions is a fine not to exceed $1,000, or imprisonment not to exceed two years, or both fine and imprisonment.

An Earnest Young Man. From the Hudson Journal.

A citizen said to the young man who visited his daughter that he couldn't afford to have so much wood burned in the parlor stove evenings; the young man must come less often or quit earlier, or furnish his own wood. Next day two cords of good hard wood were purchased by the young man and piled in the back yard, with a big sign over the pile, reading, "For use nights only."

ROUND ABOUT.

The Carson Times says that most of the people in that place are bankrupt. Capt. Snow is Deputy Warden of the State Prison.

On the place of Charles Deimuo on the La Costa Creek several miles above Sunol, Alameda county, was recently found a large Indian stone mortar. The hollow is eleven inches in diameter.

The returns from sixty-two bales of cotton which Dr. Thornton shipped some time ago from the Belview Ranch, Kern county, show a net profit after paying all the expenses of freight, storage, insurance and etc., of $2,159. The Doctor estimated the clear returns to be between forty and fifty dollars to the acre.

At Oroville yesterday, Cass Davis, a boy about 10 years of age, was wounded in the head by a stray rifle shot. It is not known by whom the shot was fired. The boy is yet alive, but the chances for his recovery are small. This is the second case of the kind that has occurred in that city within the last three months.

A fine petrification has been found on the Lawlor ranch on the Sonoma Mountains, several miles from Petaluma. It is a part of the thigh-bone of a mastodon or some other mammoth animal. It is a complete petrification nearly six inches in diameter across the crown, and about seven inches from apex of crown to base.

Vaccinated on the Leg.

A clique of young society ladies in Burlington were averse to having their plump and dimpled arms scarred by vaccination during the late small-pox scare in that city. Yet to avoid the likelihood of pits and scars on their faces, to the destruction of their beauty, they felt compelled to be vaccinated. So they held a meeting, and putting their heads together, concluded to summon an old gray-haired physician, and each was vaccinated on the leg. The old man rather enjoyed the job.

His Money Almost Buried with Him.

From the Chicago Times.
Jacob Oferece, who died at Naperville, was reputed to be the possessor of considerable money. A search elsewhere proving fruitless, the coffin was opened and bills to the amount of $310 taken from the lining of his vest.

Case of Lame Back Cured.

Green Valley, California, April 18, 1879.—The California Porous Plaster Company, Dear Sir: My daughter Jane, thanks your plaster for saving her life. She suffered for two years the most intense pain and soreness in the small of the back, extending at times all down the spinal column. She was so bad that she had given up all hopes of recovery tried a dozen or more physicians all to no purpose. I am now glad to inform you that she is entirely restored to health through the use of your Plaster. Yours respectfully, J. H. WILLIAMS.

Maine News.

Hop Bitters, which are advertised in our columns, are a sure cure for ague, biliousness and kidney complaints. Those who use them say they cannot be too highly recommended. Those afflicted should give them a fair trial, and will become thereby enthusiastic in the praise of their curative qualities.—Portland, Ad.

I will sell cheap for cash or installments the fine lot lying between Bishop Whitaker's Seminary and Mount Hope Nurseries, Reno, Nevada. These are the finest building lots in the State. STEPHEN CONNER.

Remember the oldest jewelry establishment in Reno, where you can find the best and largest stock of gold watches and chains, also jewelry, all of which are offered cheaper than any other house in Nevada or California. Call and see for yourself. I. FRANKLIN.

Knaust will continue to sell the large stock of general merchandise at cost for cash. Call on him and satisfy yourselves. feb7

Shrewdness and Ability.

Hop Bitters, so freely advertised in all the papers, secular and religious, are having a large sale, and are supplanting all other medicines. There is no denying the virtues of the hop plant, and the proprietors of these bitters have shown great shrewdness and ability in compounding a bitter whose virtues are so palpable to everyone's observation.—Exchange —Union is assessed $1.

—The Truckee is rather low.
—Arthur Nichols is in town, on his way home.
—If you want a good pair of eye-glasses, go to Goegele's.
—Mrs. Lewis has a fine ranch for sale. See 50-c. ad.
—A. C. McFarlin, Road Supervisor, is repairing the streets.
—There was only a partial mail from the east last evening. No eastern exchanges came to hand.
—A Reno Rifle Club is among the possibilities. If you are interested, speak to Rudolph, at the Wine House.
—A number of Reno people have gone to Carson to attend the performance of the Emily Melville troupe this evening.
—An assessment of 25 cents per share has been levied on the capital stock of the Caledonia Mining Company, which will be delinquent on the 9th of April.
—The difficulty of getting a really good cigar for a bit is constantly complained of. Consumers of the weed will be glad to learn that an excellent cigar can be had for that price at Allen's bookstore.
—Stocks showed little change this morning. Nobody wants to sell on such a market, and there is no inducement to buy for a turn. This state of things can't last, as Jonah said to himself in the whale's bel-stomach.

WOOD RIVER.

Its Mines and Minerals—Plenty of Wood and Water and Game—The Settlements, Stage Routes, Fares, etc.—A Rush Anticipated in the Spring.

BELLEVUE, Idaho, Feb. 27, 1881.

Editor Gazette.—Now that the mining regions of Idaho are attracting so much attention, perhaps some reliable information about this one of the most promising sections will be of interest to many of your readers. It is not yet two years since the first permanent location was made in what is now known as Wood River District, a mineral belt eighty miles long and from thirty to sixty miles wide. Today, for sixty continuous miles, there are hundreds of locations and many paying mines. Even with the enormous cost of teaming ores to the nearest railroad station, 150 miles distant, thence to the smelters and refiners at Salt Lake, the mines Jay Gould, May Flower, Idahoan, Bullion, Morton and others have shown handsome returns over all expenses. The unusually early and severe winter closed transportation, but many of the miners have kept forces at work getting ore on the dumps ready for shipment as early in the spring as possible. The Bullion will early in March increase its force to three hundred.

There are three mining districts of the Wood River range, and the character of the ores vary with each. There are found cake galena and carbonates, carrying 60 to 70 per cent. lead—sulphurets and antimonial silver running into the thousands. Further up the range the mineral is found in calcareous shale, spar iron and quartz. All the districts have developed paying mines. The whole region is well watered by Big and Little Wood rivers, fed by streams from every canyon and mountain gorge. The water power is sufficient for mills and mining; the mountains well wooded with forests of red fir and black pine, spruce, etc.

This is the country the Bannock Indians fought for several years ago, claiming it as a hunting ground. It is full of game of all kinds, elk, deer, antelope, bear, and the lesser spoils of the hunt—grouse and prairie chickens; while beaver, otter and mink abound. The smaller streams are filled with mountain trout, while the river has a seemingly inexhaustible stock of the larger trout. Warm springs are found every few miles. Owing to the elevation—5,500 feet—agriculture may not prove practicable, but the numerous valleys of the mountains and camas prairies of the southwest furnish the finest grazing country in the world—bunch grass thick as it can grow and innumerable streams in every direction.

The settlements are all new—none yet have reached their first anniversary but Bellevue, the first town on the river, and the first on the stage road from Blackfoot on the East Boise to the west, and Kelton to the south; has had by far the most rapid growth and bids fair to be the leading town of the district. It already boasts of five hotels, as many stores, two butcher shops, doctors and lawyers, a dentist, a shoemaker, several feed and livery stables, swill milk vendors, and in fact most all the branches of industry are well represented. A smelter is being put up several miles above town. Eastern capital begins to appear. Salt Lake capitalists are already on the ground gathering up cheap mining properties and town lots. It is confidently expected that the grand rush will bring in fully fifteen thousand people and make this a lively place indeed. A newspaper will issue its first daily about the first week in April, and keep the outside world posted on the doings of this distant mining camp.

The other towns or Ketchum and Galena, farther up the mountains, have had deeper snows to contend with, and show no growth, but as both are also surrounded by rich mines, they will doubtless have a fair share of the coming immigration.

Our mails here have been irregular and uncertain; at one time for two weeks there was no communication with the railroad. Last summer the contract was let for a daily mail via Blackfoot on the Utah Northern. However good in summer, it has proven impracticable as a winter route. The first of March there will be a daily line via Kelton, which road can be traveled at all seasons of the year. The routes to Bellevue—the starting point for all the mines—are the Kelton (fare from Reno to Kelton $37 25); thence by stage to Bellevue (fare $85, time 48 hours); the Blackfoot (fare to Ogden $44, to Blackfoot $11.75, to Bellevue $25; time about same as Kelton); and the Overland by way of Winnemucca valley, Deep Hole, Summit lake, Camp Fort Smith, Crossing of the Owyhee, Snake river to Bellevue.

And now a few words to those contemplating a journey hither: If you have means, come when you please; there are investments at all times for capital. If means are limited, the latter part of May or first of June is as early as it is prudent to venture. Then the snow will have disappeared and mining and prospecting can be carried on, giving work to all. W.

How Things Are in Sierra Valley.

In Sierra valley a few grasshoppers have already hatched out, and the ranchers are getting a little nervous. The coldest weather in the valley was in November, when the mercury dropped two degrees below zero. Freezing point is 36 above zero out there.

Mountain streams flowing into the valley, during the late flood, were filled with black bugs called "snow fleas."

Grass is green, and the weather was never more delightful. The girls are beginning to spruce up for the spring courting season, which has already fairly opened.

F. Rowland is sinking an artesian well. It is down 140 feet and has not struck water. J. Jones has sunk one which gave a flow when forty feet deep.

Microscopists will be pleased to learn that beautiful new varieties of diatoms have been found by Dr. Pritchard. He gathers up what appears to be green scum, and sends it to the scientists, who find beautiful cell structures in the diatoms of which it consists.

Mirror of Ireland.

Sullivan's Mirror of Ireland Company played to a fair house last night. If the true verdict on any performance intended to amuse is shown by the behavior of the audience, the entertainment given last evening must be pronounced very good. Roars of laughter went up whenever the Irish comic specialties were enacted. The panorama is gorgeously painted, with a tropical profusion of light and color, but is sufficiently accurate in many of its views of famous spots in the Emerald Isle. The accompanying music is good, and the light comedies introduced during the unrolling of the canvas prevent anything like monotony. The Company will appear for the last time this evening, with a change of programme. As it rains nearly all the time in the south of Ireland, the spectator of the panorama has a chance to see the Lakes of Killarney at better advantage than the tourist under his umbrella, and at a dale less expence."

Reduced Prices for Milk.

A. T. Rice advertises a grand reduction in the prices of milk. Small families of one person will be supplied with three-quarters of one pint per day for one month for $1; families of two economical young people, struggling along without a baby, and using only a quart of milk per day, will be supplied at $2 50 per month, and for families in which there are a few growing boys, draining the milk jug at every opportunity, four quarts per day would probably suffice, which would cost the happy father only $3 per month. The milk furnished by Mr. Rice is all from the cow, and warranted pure and sweet.

Mr. Rice is prepared to furnish hotels in Truckee, Carson, Gold Hill and Virginia at 25 cents per gallon, finding cans and paying freight. For further particulars see advertisement.

Fine Horses.

Lovers of horseflesh will be gratified by a look at those handsome Norman stallions in Lee's stables. James A. Perry, the owner, has sold a number of the same strain in this section. He is a direct importer from France, and has been proved a perfectly satisfactory man to deal with. Breeders have again an opportunity to select a fine animal from his stock. The Norman horse is suited to all kinds of heavy draft, and general work on the farm.

Roll of Honor.

Roll of honor at the School for Girls, for the month ending February 25, 1881: Isabel Osborne 98.2, Ella Bishop 98.2, Vienna Dollarhide 97.8, Carrie Webb 97.3, Hattie Lewis 97.2, Frank Grippen 97, Louise Suss 97, Grace Dowdell 97, May Ennor 96.7, May Cars 96.7, Jamie Vosburgh 96.6.

Vesey, 234 80; R. L. Fulton, 253 21; and jury claims to the amount of $1,274 70.

The bill of T. W. Longley was laid over for want of an affidavit.

The bill of J. Watson for road work, amount $100, was laid over for further consideration.

There being a deficiency of $877 55 in salary fund, ordered that the sum be transferred from the general fund to the salary fund.

Sheriff Walker's petition asking for an allowance of $100 per month for payment of a jailer and janitor, was denied.

Ordered that County Assessor Flanagan be allowed compensation for two assistants for a period not exceeding sixty days.

Ordered that Road Superintendent McFarlin be allowed to repair the bridge at Mayberry's at the expense of the general road fund.

Ordered that R. D. Sides be authorized to expend $300 on highways in Franktown road district, out of the general road fund.

Ordered that D. W. Bryant be authorized to expend $200 on roads in North Glendale road district.

Ordered that the County Clerk be authorized to contract with H. J. Matney for counter and cases for clerk's office, at price named in "Matney's proposal."

Ordered that an alley be opened through block A in the town of Reno, and that Fifth street be opened from West to Chesnut, in accordance with the prayer of petitioners.

Board adjourned until Monday next.

Cause of Heat in Mines and Springs.

The Enterprise says the cause of heat in the Comstock mines is partly owing to the action of water on the lime in the rock, but the great cause of heat is the decomposition of iron pyrites. The hottest places in the mines are where the heat is generated by both lime and pyrites. The hot springs at Steamboat are due to the decomposition of iron pyrites. The Enterprise adds: "At Steamboat Springs we probably see a big mineral vein (like the Comstock) in process of formation. Ages ago there was probably a line of hot springs along the course of the Comstock. The mines of Europe and Mexico which are comparatively cold at great depths are undoubtedly ages and ages older than the Comstock. The Comstock is probably the youngest mine in any part of the world that is now known and being worked. Here, down in our lower levels, we are following close upon the heels of Nature—getting well down into her workshop."

The State Fair.

Since the Legislature refused to authorize Washoe county to issue bonds for the debts of the Agricultural Society, there has been some speculation as to whether there would be any State Fair this year or not. It is probable that, after the mortgages on the Fair grounds and buildings shall have been foreclosed, the Society will lease the property, and hold the Fair as usual. The Fair last fall considerably more than paid expenses.

Capitol Saloon.

At this place there has just been received large invoices of the following celebrated brands of liquors: Jesse Moore & A. A. Old Scotch and J. H. Cutter & Co. whiskey; Martell's Old Cognac and other Brandy; the gallon or bottle; Genuine Holland Gin, Irish and Scotch whiskey, fine Janicas and S. E. rum, sherry and port; wine and the finest Bit O'gar in town. Remember the new place, Capitol saloon, Commercial Row, next door to Postoffice, Reno, Nevada.

M. VUCOVICH & CO.

Having leased the best dairy ranch on the Meadows, for the term of three years, I am prepared to fill all orders for milk on reasonable notice, and my cans and milk route are not for sale. 61 acres of land, government lot, perpetual water, 1 1/2 miles east of the Courthouse, for sale. ## BY TELEGRAPH.

An Earthquake in Ischia—100 Persons Killed and 300 Injured.

LONDON, March 7. A fearful earthquake occurred at Cascamaciola, Island of Ischia, on Friday. The first shock came at 1:30 p. m., and the second an hour later. The second and fatal shock lasted seven seconds, and was accompanied by a noise like subterranean thunder. Then came the crash of falling houses, accompanied by the shrieks of the victims. Two hundred houses were thrown down and many others demolished and made uninhabitable. The killed number 100 and many more were injured. The total number of victims is estimated at 300. The wounded are being conveyed in steamers to the hospital at Naples. At Amnes five persons were killed and thirteen houses were destroyed. The panic-stricken inhabitants are camping in the fields, afraid to venture back. Harrowing scenes were presented at the mortuary chamber, mothers, wives and children striving to snatch the dead from the biers on which the soldiers were carrying them away. Soldiers, police and doctors were immediately dispatched from Naples. Shortly before the first shock the mineral springs were observed to be in a state of ebullition.

The New Southern Railway Route.

OMAHA, March 7. It is asserted that General Manager Kimball, General Freight Agent Vining and General Ticket Agent Stebbins, of the Union Pacific, went to Topeka to-day to hold a conference with the officials of the new Southern Pacific route, the object being to arrange a friendly basis of doing business and agreeing upon passenger and freight rates; or, in other words, to form some sort of a pool. The new Southern route will have rail connection completed by the 15th of March.

Fearful Destruction of American Pine Forests.

CHICAGO, March 7. The Chicago Lumberman's Exchange held its annual meeting to-day. The President's address contains the startling statement that owing to the enormous growth of the lumber business it will take only twenty years to exhaust the great pine forests of the country if the present rate of depletion continues. The receipts of lumber of all kinds at this port during the year 1880 were 1,564,000,000 feet.

The Snow Blockade.

CHICAGO, March 7. The trains are still weather-bound in nearly every part of Wisconsin, Minnesota, Iowa and Northern Illinois. Snow plows are running in every direction, and large gangs of shovelers are busy aiding them. In the city the snow is still so piled up that foot passengers on the sidewalks cannot see those who walk on the other side.

The Senate in Extraordinary Session.

WASHINGTON, March 6. Immediately after the reading of the journal Senator-elect Mahone, of Virginia, was sworn in, subscribing to the modified oath. He took a seat upon the Republican side. Upon motion of Pendleton, the Senate adjourned till to-morrow.

Revised New Testament.

NEW YORK, March 7. The revised New Testament will be published by the English University presses in May next, in different sizes and styles of binding at corresponding prices.

Reported Rail Connection.

St. LOUIS, March 7. It is unofficially announced that the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Railroad made connection with the Southern Pacific on Saturday last.

Howell Away Ahead.

NEW YORK, March 8. The following is the score of the pedestrians at 9 a. m. Rowell, 161; Albert, withdrawn, (sprained a tendon at 8:40 a. m.); Vaughan, 130; O'Leary, 127.

A Dance Thursday Night.

The Amateur Quadrille Band's invitations are out for a dance on Thursday evening next. Dancing commences at 9 o'clock and lasts till 1. The music at the Band's parties is good and the company merry and unobjectionable. Go.

Dentistry—Reduced in Price. Dr. W. D. Wagar will make upper or lower plates of vulcanite rubber sets of teeth for $15 00 cash. Extracting, per tooth, $1. Office on Virginia Street, over John Sanderland's, Reno, Nevada.

WHERE WAITEST THOU?

Where waitest thou?
 Lady I am to love! Thou comest not;
 Thou knowest of my sad and lonely lot;
 I look'd for thee ere now!

It is the May!
 And each sweet sister soul hath found its brother:
 Only two seek fondly each the other,
 And, seeking, still delay.

Thou art as I—
 Thy soul doth wait for mine, as mine for thee;
 We cannot live apart; must meeting be Never before we die?

Dear soul, not so;
 That time doth keep for us some happy years,
 That God hath portion'd out our smiles and tears,
 Thou knowest and I know.

Yes, we shall meet!
 And shall meet our searching be the stronger:
 Dark days of life shall not divide us longer,
 Nor, doubt, nor danger, sweet!

Therefore I hear
 This winter-tide as bravely as I may,
 Patiently waiting for the bright spring day
 That cometh with thee, dear.

'Tis the May light
 That crimson all the quiet college gloom.
 May it shine softly in my sleeping-room;
 And so, dear wife, good night. ARNOLD.

The House-Eating Ants in Australia.

An intimation of the mischief done in regions infested with white ants, by the wood destroying habits of these insects, is furnished by a recent law suit in New South Wales. The plaintiff, a contractor, had received from the defendant instructions to repair a house which had been damaged by white ants. As the work proceeded, the plaintiff found that the house was almost eaten away by the white ants, and that a considerably increased expenditure would be required to put the house in thorough repair, and he informed defendant of the fact. The bill for the work was disputed as excessive.

A considerable amount of testimony was taken on both sides as to the amount of work performed, and it was stated that an estimate could not be given of the contract price of work, as the white ants operate during darkness, and the extent of their ravages could only be seen as the work proceeded. One witness described the house as being so badly injured that new material would be required throughout, and the best way to have dealt with it would have been "to put a fire stick under it." The estimated cost of repairs before the work was begun was about $1,150. The defendant had paid $2,000, and the Court adjudged that he should pay $33 more.

Girls Should Never Tell Such Things.

From the St. Louis Spectator.

Belles have troubles unknown to their less conspicuous sisters, and their belatedness is usually the most abject slavery to their acquired reputation, encumbered with such responsibilities as cannot be laid down for a moment. A young lady said to her friend the other day: "You don't know what we girls have to do to be belles and get plenty of escorts." The perplexed friend repeated the remark to a young gentleman cousin, who remarked laughingly: "Oh! they only let us hold their hands sometimes and make love a little strongly. Why, lots of folks laughed at little Miss at a certain seaside resort last summer, where she was caught in a very affectionate attitude with a gentleman, by a very particular Boston girl, who repeated in a horrified but faithful way what she saw, and little Miss doesn't know to this day just why she is 'off color' this season, and what's more the men of her family are also in ignorance as to the 'why.'"

How to Mix the "Loving Cup."

This is the recipe for the "Loving Cup" which has for years been used at the feasts of the Lord Mayor of London. Mix of port wine two bottles, of sherry one of claret one and of brandy one gill, to which add the thin, oily peel of two lemons and the water (when cooled)—and reduced from a pint to half a pint—in which have been boiled and therefrom strained of cinnamon, cloves and allspice one ounce each. When this spiced mixture is cool add the juice of the two lemons with a quarter pound of white sugar and of Maraschino and Curacao one wine-glass each. Put the mixture into a glass-lined covered vessel and imbibe it in ice one hour. Then add two bottles of German seltzer-water with—to float on top—a few lemon slices and a halfspoonful of grated nutmeg. The London loving cup holds a little more than a gallon and a half.

Patented April 2, 1878, June 11, 1878, and July 8, 1879.

Boss Coffee, Tea Pots & Urns.

It is the Boss! Why? Because it produces Boss Coffee.

It makes rich flavored Coffee! Why? Because all the aroma and food are retained.

It beats them all! Why? Because it saves 100 per cent over boiled Coffee, which is not Coffee, but bitter water. Second—Because it saves 50 per cent over any other method of making Coffee. Third—Because it saves eggs and trouble of clarifying. Fourth—Because it makes Coffee as clear as red wine. Fifth—Because it takes only two minutes to make Boss Coffee.

The Boss works as well on Tea, and saves
 25 to 50 per cent.

While Edison may furnish light to millions, the BOSS will assuredly give health to all who use it. Thousands have become dyspeptic and bilious from drinking boiled coffee or BITTER WATER, (boiled coffee is not coffee, but bitter water.) DR. SPINNEY will (sic) the BOSS. Stop drinking boiled coffee. Make your coffee as NATURE ORDAINED, and restore your health. Many inventors have racked their brains to furnish the human family with a practical method of making coffee. At last the HAPPY RESULT has been accomplished in the production of very cheap and simple Pots and Urns celebrated as the BOSS.

To Whom It MAY CONCERN.—After thoroughly testing the BOSS COFFEE PUT, we, the undersigned, fully endorse the same as the best method of making Coffee we have ever seen. Besides saving eggs, it will save a large per cent. of the Coffee. It produces Coffee as clear as wine, which is much stronger, and has a more delicious flavor than any coffee made by any other process.
